

NEWS FROM: Hidden Creek Winery

For Immediate Release: April 27, 2007

For more information, contact:

Ruth Leichliter
570-869-9463

LOCAL BUSINESS HOSTS “ARTS AT THE CREEK”

Artists display their original works and demonstrate their talents.

When: May 26, 2007

Where: Hidden Creek Winery, Laceyville, PA

Susquehanna & Wyoming County, PA – On May 26, 2007 from 10 am to 6 pm, Hidden Creek Winery, Laceyville, PA, is sponsoring this year’s “Arts at the Creek” featuring local artisans and their works as well as free wine making classes for everyone interested in learning how to create their own original wine recipes.

“We’re so excited about this event.” Ruth & Russ Leichliter, owners of Hidden Creek Winery, told us, “We’re committed to providing community activities and events that showcase our local talents. Our communities have talented artisans that work in pen & ink, watercolors, mixed media, oils and sculptural pieces. The response to this first of many events has been fantastic. We’re hoping everyone who appreciates art comes and enjoys walking through the tents. In addition, because wine and wine making has become popular in surrounding counties and we now have a wine trail, we wanted to give people a taste of the process for making wine so free classes in the art of wine making are available on two weekends – May 19th & May 26th. It’s a fun day out for everyone and a chance for our communities to come together.”

Owned and operated by Russ & Ruth Leichliter, Hidden Creek Winery features fruit wines made from local & Pennsylvania fruit juices and is an advocate of Pennsylvania’s Buy Local campaign.

For more information about this event: www.hiddencreekwines.com or call 570-869-WINE