Artists display their original works and a fundraiser for St. Jude’s Children’s Research Hospital.

When: May 31, 2008

Where: Hidden Creek Winery, Laceyville, PA

Susquehanna & Wyoming County, PA – On May 31, 2008 from 10 am to 6 pm, Hidden Creek Winery, Laceyville, PA, is sponsoring their second annual “Arts at the Creek” featuring local artisans and their works as well as an fundraiser auction for St. Jude’s Children’s Research Hospital. 100% of the proceeds will benefit sick children. Artisan and sponsors will donate items for this auction to support our children’s healthy future. In addition, Stitches the Clown and local band “Loose Change” will entertain everyone. The auctioneer for the benefit will be by Burke’s auctioneers.

“We’re so excited about this event.” Ruth & Russ Leichliter, owners of Hidden Creek Winery, told us, “We’re committed to providing community activities and events that showcase our local talents. Our communities have talented artisans that work in pen & ink, watercolors, mixed media, oils and sculptural pieces as well as music. The response to this event has been fantastic. We’re hoping everyone who appreciates art comes and those who wish to support St. Jude’s Children’s Research Hospital will attend the auction at 3 PM. It’s a fun day out for everyone and a chance for our communities to come together and support a very good cause – our children.”

Owned and operated by Russ & Ruth Leichter, Hidden Creek Winery features fruit wines made from local & Pennsylvania fruit juices and is an advocate of Pennsylvania's Buy Local campaign.
